- Summers End Date: August 13th from 5:00 – 9:00 (waiting for returns) Still in need of craft vendors. There will be a refundable deposit and set up will start at 3:00
- Oktoberfest still in need of food vendors
- Small Business Administration (sba.gov) for new 2022 Business grants and funding. There's still a lot of funding available
- Any new business or town updates
  - New Mexican restaurant is hoping to open in about 3 weeks. It should have the same food as the one in Goshen and is currently undergoing a huge makeover.
  - A new counseling office will be going into the downtown
  - NISCO is hiring and going through a huge change in leadership. They are hoping to change the way things are run and treat their employees much better.
  - Mike's Custom Painting sold to Precision Painting
  - There have been several reports of scams coming in at the Police Department and we were all given a warning to watch out for things of that sort.
- Any thoughts of Business of the Year ideas? (key to the city, mint award, any award thought) was talk of giving away these awards at big town events because the dinners weren't very successful.
